WHO ARE WE?

Think journalist, lawyer, geophysicist . . . wait . . . don't think that! That's boring, and anyway, those are just our day jobs. FAME and FORTUNE are what we really want! That's why we got together in the summer of 2002 to form a singing group called the ALTO EGOS.

We sing classic songs in 3-part harmonies with digital accompaniment. Watch us transform ourselves into Diana Ross and the Supremes, or the Dixie Chicks, or the Mamas (without the Papas). Even the Beatles, Abba and Manhattan Transfer have nothing on the ALTO EGOS.

We perform a wide selection of songs, ranging from slow, easy-listening ballads, to rockin', toe-tappin' tunes. And we'll do that for you at virtually any kind of event, from small gatherings and venues such as dinner parties, bistros, and coffee shops, to large get-togethers like weddings, corporate meetings and office parties. We can adapt to any venue and audience!
